

Macton is your professional partner.

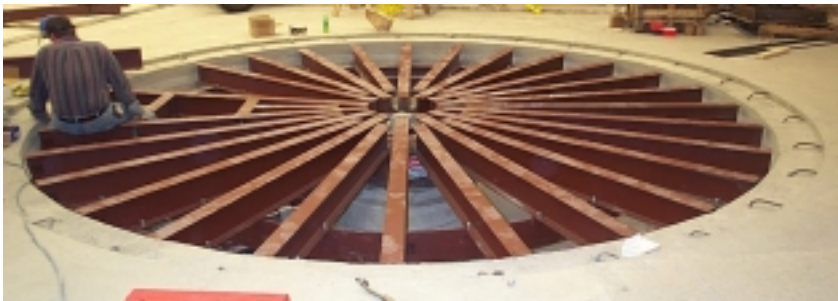

Macton works with you or your consultants to select and engineer the best design for your specific application.

The turntable is manufactured in our purpose-built shop.

The finished turntable is tested and match marked prior to shipment. It is ready for shipment when you are.

With the assistance of our factory technician, the turntable is installed in the pit.

Make use of tight space.
Never back into busy roadways.